Fact Sheet

ABOUT

ClauseMatch is an award-winning London-based regulatory technology company that enables financial institutions and other regulated companies to comply with their internal corporate governance documentation (standards, procedures, controls). It is a 2014 graduate of the inaugural Barclays accelerator programme, BBVA Open Talent challenge winner, and is in the top RegTech companies selected by CB Insights and Dow Jones.

The solution brings unprecedented productivity and transparency for Compliance, Legal, Finance, Operations and Risk teams saving millions in terms of time and resources while significantly reducing risk and providing accountability.

Recognised as one of the leading technology companies providing innovative tools for regulatory change management, ClauseMatch is backed by TechStars, SparkLabs, Index Ventures, Talis Capital, Speed Invest, Silicon Valley Bank, as well as individual investors: Tom Glocer, Cristobal Conde.

MISSION

The company's mission is to bring unprecedented transparency, accountability and efficiency to the regulatory implementation and compliance processes, therefore, giving employees more valuable time to spend on things that matter and they enjoy most of all.

FOUNDERS

Evgeny Likhoded

Evgeny Likhoded is Founder and CEO of ClauseMatch. Having worked in the legal profession for over a decade in Morgan Stanley and large energy companies, Evgeny experienced all the pains of managing compliance with outda and sought to improve the current ways of how legal and compliance departments manage high-risk documentation. He then went on to found ClauseMatch in 2012.

Managing Director, Chief Operating Officer (COO) and Chief Controls Officer, Group Compliance at Barclays

Some companies build compliance function by hiring hundreds, sometimes thousands, of mature professionals. We decided to double-down on technology, as it's a scalable approach that will help us as we grow and expand globally. Regulatory technologies such as ClauseMatch does indeed help us achieve it.

Nikolay Storonsky

Founder & CEO at Revolut

We are delighted to be working in partnership with ClauseMatch and for the SEC, we were able to bring our expertise of codes and the Energy market and configure a solution underpinned by the regulatory and technological expertise of ClauseMatch.
